

Name: _____

5A: SENTENCE COMPLETION

DIRECTIONS: Complete the following sentences with the correct word from your list.
Each word will be used only once.

dictate

contradict

edict

autobiography

telegram

calligraphy

graphic inscription

transcript

prescription

1. The wedding invitation was written in beautiful _____.
2. The _____ on the headstone included a few lines from a famous poem.
3. Even though I disagreed with his theory, I had no evidence to _____ him.
4. In the 1800s, sending a _____ was the fastest way to quickly send a message over long distances.
5. It was difficult to hear the _____ details of the accident.
6. My doctor wrote me a _____ for medicine when I was ill.
7. The author retells every fascinating detail of her childhood in her _____, which is going on sale next month.
8. The King's army enforced his _____ that stated no one could be out in public after 9:00 p.m.
9. The court recorder typed a _____ of the entire trial.
10. The politician would _____ her speech to her assistant, who would then type it out.

5B: YES or NO?

DIRECTIONS: Respond to the following statements by circling "Yes" or "No."

1. Yes No Today, a telegram is the most popular way to communicate.
2. Yes No An autobiography contains personal information about a person.
3. Yes No An inscription can easily be removed with water.
4. Yes No Edicts are suggestions that people have the option of following.
5. Yes No A graphic account is very detailed and possibly disturbing.
6. Yes No Many people think calligraphy is elegant, ornate, and beautiful.
7. Yes No A person can dictate something without saying a word.
8. Yes No Anyone can write a prescription for medication.
9. Yes No If you don't believe someone, you might contradict him/her.
10. Yes No A transcript can be handwritten or typed.